FATHER FIONAN BRANNIGAN, pastor of St. Andrew's Russian Church, El Segundo, explains the symbolism of the Byzantine Cross to Bill Fredericks, officer of the Nativity Holy Name Society of Torrance. Father Brannigan will present a talk at the Nativity Catholic Church Parish Hall, Jan. 7, on the rites of the Byzantine Church and the status of religion in Russia today.

Decorator's Talk to Benefit Temple Menorah

Arnold White, interior decorator, will speak on "Developing a Decorating Plan" at the home of Mrs. Werner L. Frank, 5410 Kassner St., in Rolling Hills Jan. 15 at 8 p.m. A donation of $1 is requested and all proceeds from the affair will go to Temple Menorah.

White, whose lovely studio is located at 22246 Pinos Verdes Blvd., is a native of Los Angeles and a resident of the South Bay area.

One of Arnold White's many accomplishments is the interior decorating of Craig Rice's (the famous mystery story writer) home. His staff is composed of Herbert White, special awards winner for furniture arrangement, Charles Sears, scholarship winner and awards winner for interior decorating, Betty Ashenfelter, outstanding color and design expert, and Bill Lowell, lighting specialist.

Mrs. Henry Rappaport, co-hostess for this affair, has announced that the Waleria Florists of Waleria will donate the floral arrangements. Reservations must be made in advance by contacting Mrs. Rappaport at FR 8-5136.

Human Relations Seminar Slated

A six week Human Relations Seminar under the sponsorship of the Pacific Unitarian Church will be held beginning Jan. 17.

Meetings will be from 2:30 to 4 p.m. Saturdays at the home of the minister, Rev. R. W. F. Seebode, 4617 Highgrove Ave.

Cost for the Seminar will be $10 per person. Applications should be sent to Rev. Seebode accompanied by a check.

The class, limited to 12 persons, is open to members and friends of the church.

Twelve Disciples

The South Bay Religious Science Church of Torrance and Hermosa Beach will present the renowned photographer and lecturer, Sune Richards of Whittier in her color pictorials of the Twelve Disciples and the story behind her search for these twelve men.

The lecture will be given at the Hermosa Beach Woman's Club House, 87 West 17th St., Hermosa Beach, Jan. 15, at 7:30. Rev. Ted Romersa has announced that the doors of the Clubhouse will be open at 7, but as the seating capacity is limited, he urges that all persons desiring good seats be there promptly.

Mrs. Richards has given 10 years of study to the portrayal of the twelve men she has chosen from every walk of life to represent the Twelve Disciples. She will present them as she found them and tell the stories behind the search for each person.

Mrs. Richards is on an extended lecture tour of Southern California at the present time and has a complete booking for the winter months.

Church Budget to Be Adopted

The Narbonne Ave. Southern Baptist Church of Lomita discussed their proposed budget calling for $100,000 during 1959. The largest item in the budget calls for $38,000 to be raised for a proposed new building and parking area. The budget will be formally adopted at the 10:50 a. m. service Sunday morning. The church income for the last year was more than $73,000.

Pastor Robert A. Wells will speak at both morning services on "Does God Work That Way?"

The Sunday School workers will attend the annual state Sunday School convention in Huntington Park Jan. 15-17.
